Java Market Analysis

October 2012

ORACLE®

PARTNERNETWORK

Specialized. Recognized by Oracle.
Preferred by Customers.

Objectives

- Analyse past Java business data in order to provide focus for the future
- Identify positive market trends in order to focus product development and resource
- Prioritise vertical market alignment with wider Oracle
- Identify specific accounts where we can replicate success and grow 'comparable' business
- Provide approach focus for the Java and ISV/OEM organisations
- Identify development requirements

ORACLE

Assumptions

Ongoing Exercise

- Takes a global view
 - Regional variances have been noted during the analysis
- Revenue Projections
 - Based on overall market share. Based on extrapolation of largest design win in sector.
- Market Share data
 - Based on various industry reports
- Growth
 - Assumed in all accounts including those where there is an existing design win
- Data
 - Segment data may be skewed by the fact that some companies (Samsung, Cisco, IBM, Huawei etc.) operate in multiple sectors. The data set for this exercise assigns the company to the major Java revenue sector in which they operate. Further data refinement is required for complete accuracy.
